GRAND PANORAMA

OF THE Battle of Alexandria, in Egypt,

Is now opened in BROAD-STREET.

THIS animated painting has been the admiration of the Metropolis of England and Ireland; and has received unbounded applause from the inhabitants of New-York, and Philadelphia. It is executed by that celebrated young Artist, ROBERT KER PORTER, upon the same grand scale as the Storming of Seringapatam, and the Battle of Lodi; comprehending 3000 square feet of canvas, and introducing in the various Groups, which occupy the foreground, above 90 portraits of British Officers. Sir Ralph Abercrombie, Sir Sidney Smith, and all the front figures, which are about 100, are as large as life.

The Place of Exhibition will be open every day. (Sunday excepted) from nine o'clock till dark. Admittance Fifty Cents, or a general Ticket for one Dollar.

* A correct account of the Battle of Alexandria, with a Sketch of the Campaign in Egypt, under Sir Ralph Abercrombie, may be had at the above place, (price twenty-five cents.

No People of Colour admitted.

Factorage.

JACINT LAVAL, Jun. encouraged by his friends, begs leave to inform the public, that he has commenced the FACTORAGE BUSINESS, which he intends carrying on in all its various branches; to that effect, he has taken the Store No. 1, the west corner of Mr. Benjamin Paul Williams's Buildings, on Prioleau's wharf, where he will thankfully receive his friends patronage, be it Rice, Cotton, Corn, Lumber, Shingles, Limes, Bricks, Oak and Pine Wood, &c. The interest of his employers being the object he will first have in consideration, he flatters himself soon to merit a share of the public favor.

A Boat of his own is constantly employed on freight for either of the above-mentioned articles, and also has Carts to remove them, with dispatch, from the wharf.

A gentleman of commercial abilities and integrity having offered his services and joined him, which will contribute greatly to establish correctness and punctuality in the above business, it will, therefore, be carried on under the firm of

J. Laval, Jun. & Co.

THE Subscriber respectfully solicits the patronage of his friends in favor of the above firm, fully confident that their punctuality and attention to their employer's interests will soon entitle them to further encouragement, and a share of the public confidence.

J. Laval, Sen.

ead3.

The Subscribers

HAVE this day entered into copartnership, under the Firm of TAYLOR & KEHR, and tender their services to their friends and the public, in the Commission, Shipping, and Factorage Business.

D. Taylor.

J. D. Kehr.

January 1.

The Subscriber

RETURNS his sincere thanks to his friends and the public, for the liberal support he has received from them since his commencement in the Commission Business, and respectfully informs them that he has removed his Office from No. 104 Broad-street, to No. 43 East-Bay, one door from the North corner of Broad-street, where he will thankfully receive a continuance of their past favors, either as a Factor, Vendue Master, or Broker; he trusts from his usual assiduity and long experience to give general satisfaction.—Cash will be advanced on all species of property put in his hands either for private or public sale; and he will attend in any part of the country to sell Estates or other property at Auction, on very moderate terms.

Alexander H. McGillivray.

January 27.

EDUCATION.

THE inhabitants of this city and its vicinity are informed, that the subscriber intends to open a School, for the instruction of young ladies and gentlemen in the following branches of education, viz. Reading, Writing, English Grammar, Mathematics, History, Geography (with the use of the Terrestrial Globe)—and the Latin and Greek Classics. He hopes, that several years successful experience in the instruction of youth, united with diligence and fidelity to his charge, will enable him to satisfy a reasonable expectations in those who may entrust scholars to his care. Terms may be known by applying at No. 120 BROAD-STREET.

A few Young Gentlemen may be accommodated with Board.

C. Merriam.

January 14.

Mr. Herbemont,

RESPECTFULLY informs the public and his friends that he has this day opened his EVENING SCHOOL for the tuition of the French Language and Mathematics, at No. 213, Meeting-Street. He likewise continues to give private lessons in the French and English Languages, Writing, Arithmetic, Geography, &c.

Mr. H. is compelled by the most urgent necessity, to beg of those who have been long indebted to him, to make immediate payment, either in cash or notes at a short date.

Jan. 5

MRS. MARSHALL

BEGS leave to inform her friends, and the public in general, that she purposes opening a BOARDING and DAY SCHOOL, for young Ladies, at her house, No. 94 Tradd-street, on the 15th of JANUARY next; where the usual branches of education will be taught by the best masters that can be procured.

She also intends instructing them in all kinds of Needle-work. Parents and guardians may rely on the utmost care being taken of their morals, and whatever can contribute to improve and cultivate their manners and personal accomplishments.

January 24.

WILLIAM ROBINSON,

RESPECTFULLY informs the Publick, that, for their accommodation he has made such arrangements at the "Merchants and Planters Hotel" as will enable him, as usual, to occupy his old stand upon the Washington Race Course, during the Race Week, and upon the day of the General Review.

Refreshments, in his usual style, may be had from Sunday next. He respectfully solicits the support of his friends and the publick.

February 4.

THE PLANTER'S HOTEL,

Corner of QUEEN & MEETING-STREETS.

MRS. CALDER having taken that large and roomy House known by the title of the "Planter's Hotel," with an intention of forming a permanent establishment, has spared no pains nor expense to fit up the same for the reception of the Gentlemen Planters and Families from the Country, as also for the Citizens of Charleston, in a style that unites comfort, neatness, and convenience. Every room (fourteen in number) is furnished with ENTIRE NEW FURNITURE, BEDDING, CARPETING, &c. &c.—The House is newly white-washed and painted, and is now in the completest order to receive the most respectable company. The table will be furnished with the best the markets afford—the Liquors will always be the best—the Servants are obliging, obedient, and orderly; nor will any others be permitted about the House. The different papers of the city are taken for the amusement and convenience of her Boarders.

If to the above, an observance of cleanliness through every department of the House, seconded with the utmost efforts to give satisfaction to those who may favour her with their company, will entitle to a portion of public favour, she flatters herself of having her share.
