

BULLETIN.

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI, FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 12,

The STATE JOURNAL having been suppressed this morning, the compositors have determined to issue this extra containing the latest telegraphic dispatches of the afternoon.

W. H. SWIFT, Foreman.

THE STATE JOURNAL. ITS SUPPRESSION.

THE office of the DAILY MISSOURI STATE JOURNAL was last night entered by Col. McNeil, in command of a regiment of his Home Guards, and the material and appurtenances for the issuing of the paper carried away—probably to the Arsenal.

This morning the compositors were at work, ready and willing to perform the extra labor necessary to the issue of the paper in due time, but Mr. Tucker, having been notified that all the armed force in the city would be used to prevent said issue, immediately decided to take no steps whatever to produce any collision between the Federal troops and the people, thereby giving practical proof of his previous declarations as a law-abiding citizen. All honor to Mr. TUCKER, the brave, loyal and true American citizen, who had rather his own material interest should thus suffer, than innocent blood should flow for a fourth time in our streets.

The following is the official order closing the JOURNAL office:

HEADQUARTERS, U. S. RESERVE CORPS, }
St. Louis, July 11, 1861. }

SIR: Under an order from Brigadier General Lyon, commanding the forces of the United States, within the State of Missouri, I am directed to prevent the further issue of a newspaper, published by you in the city of St. Louis, called "THE STATE JOURNAL," and to use such force as may be necessary for that purpose.

I hereby notify you that the further publication of the newspaper aforesaid will not be permitted, and if attempted by you, I shall not hesitate to assume the gravest responsibility, and to use the whole force at my command to enforce the law.

The ordinary business of your printing establishment will not be interrupted unless it shall be perverted to treasonable purposes.

Respectfully, JOHN McNEIL,
Col. Third Reg., Com. U. S. R. C.

To MORITZ NEIDNER, Esq.,
Publisher "STATE JOURNAL."

THE 'DEMOCRAT'S' FALSEHOOD

A PASSENGER who came through by the North Missouri Railroad, emphatically contradicts the statements put forth by the Democrat extra of to-day. Gen. Harris had a large force, well armed and equipped, and was making a strong head against the Illinois invaders.

Col. Smith was surrounded, and has been, ere this, forced to surrender.

Boston, July 12.—A brig from Bangor arrived at Newport this morning, with the crew of the brig John Welch, from Trinidad, for Falmouth, which was captured by the privateer Jeff. Davis, on Saturday, off Cape Hatteras. They ransacked the ship, but allowed her to proceed, in consequence of her great draught of water.

The Sonnet privateer captured the brig schooner J. C. Warner, of New York, and a brig, whose name is unknown, one hundred miles south east of the Nantucket south shoals.

Capt. Genior, of the British bark Maj. Norton, at this port from St. Martius, reports on the 9th inst., in latitude 39 degrees, longitude 69, having seen a full rigged brig, showing French colors, which hailed the bark in English.

To which a reply was made in French; but they did not appear to understand the language, but chased the Major Norton for three hours, but she outsailed them. Two hundred men were on the foretops.

MANCHESTER, N. H., July 12.—A destructive tornado passed through Londonderry, unroofing a number of buildings; ruining orchards and crops; sweeping a third of a mile in width through valuable timber lands—leveling everything, blockading roads, &c. No one injured.

LOUISVILLE, July 12.—A resolution was offered in the City Council, last night, requiring a Revision Committee to inquire into the abduction of youths under age to the Southern Confederacy.

The Military State Board have decided that no more money shall be spent on military encampments, and have also demanded the Governor to call in all the arms in the possession of the State Guard and make a fair distribution of them between Home and State Guards.

Movements look to the disbanding of the State Guard.

The New Albany (Ind.) Intelligencer is authorized by Collector Anthony to say that hereafter no obstructions will be made to the passage of provisions and other articles from New Albany to Louisville.

D. C. Stone, late Capt. of the Louisville battery, publishes a card denying his disobedience of certain orders, as charged by Gen. Buckner, and threatens, through the Union papers, to show that Buckner's decision against him was false and given through mere prejudice, and that the board composing the court, including the Judge Advocate, knew it to be so.

A Richmond dispatch learns that a large number of negroes, captured by the Federal troops, have been sent to Cuba as one means of defraying the expenses of the war.

QUINCY, July 12.—A soldier named Hulse, belonging to a company from Taylorville, in Col. Palmer's regiment, accidentally shot himself on board the steamer Black Hawk, yesterday. He was leaning on his gun, which was by some means discharged. The ball passed through his under jaw and head. There is no hope of his recovery.

The hardware store of S. & C. H. Bull was entered last night, and the books in the safe were by some means set on fire, though the safe was found locked. The counting room was also set on fire, and the books and papers there were considerably damaged. The damage to the goods was quite heavy, but fully covered by insurance.

There are rumors of a battle at Monroe, yesterday evening, between Col. Smith, aided by the Home Guard from Hannibal, three companies of which started for Monroe, yesterday morning, and the Secession Cavalry. It is said the rebels did not come within musket range, but used only artillery.

It is said that Major Hays, with a small force, arrived just as the Federals had dismounted the rebels' gun, and completely routed them, taking many prisoners. The leader, Tom Harris, has not been captured.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Secretary Smith has removed a number of his clerks. The rumor that Fairfax Court House has been evacuated is untrue; on the contrary, it has been reinforced.

The New York Times' dispatch says a battle has or will immediately occur between Patterson and Johnson's forces. Mr. Stevens is here with a working model of his floating battery, which has never before been exhibited. The original is at Hoboken.
